Last Chance Patriots in Action

We have been busy! October saw us traveling around western Montana with Trevor Loudon. Trevor was very well received in Missoula, Kalispell, Polson, Bozeman and Great Falls where he delivered excellent presentations about The Enemies Within: within our government, folks (as Trevor would say). We are now working on plans for activities in 2018 which will include a Montana tour by Shahram Hadian who will present disturbing facts about the Interfaith Movement. We will have one other major speaker coming later in year, Stephen Coughlin. Stephen is the Author of Catastrophic Failure.

Meanwhile we are looking for people to partner with other Last Chance Patriots across the state to work on special projects such as Islam in schools, the Interfaith movement, Turkish influence on the reservations, refugee settlement, sanctuary or "welcoming" cities, and the threat of the establishment of a very large meat packing plant in Great Falls by a Canadian company. There is a huge amount of work to be done to protect Montana from all the threats we face as a state and as a nation in these turbulent times. If you can help on projects in any capacity (research, writing letters, making presentations for example) your help would be greatly appreciated. If you can support the efforts of Last Chance Patriots with a donation to help us bring in great speakers and transport them across the state and to help defray the costs of our efforts, that would also be greatly appreciated.

Missoula Refugee Update thru November 30 , 2017

As of November 30, 2017 there have been 133 refugees resettled in Missoula since August 2016. Their countries of origin are:

Democratic Republic of Congo	37
Eritrea	64
Ethiopia	7
Iraq	12
Syria	13

There were no refugees resettled between June 15th and September 12th. On September 13th four Syrians arrived in Missoula and six Eritreans arrived in October and an additional eight Eritreans in November.

Make no mistake: this remains a very important issue for Montana. In our opinion, Helena will be the next city to begin welcoming refugees. The election of Wilmot Collins as Helena's new mayor does not bode well for those of us who are concerned about the effect of refugee resettlement on Montana. Mr. Collins is a delegate to Refugee Congress, a powerful refugee advocacy group and it can be surmised that he will seek to use his power as Mayor to promote refugee resettlement in Helena.

TREVOR WISDOM

"With the election of President Trump, America has been given a gift. A reprieve of four years. Your work is not done. The work has just begun. To save America and freedom everywhere you must support him, encourage him and elect people who are Constitutionalists who will, in turn support him. If you don't, and if he fails, America, as you know it, is over".

Trevor Loudon

Why Trump Must Fail

Not only fail, but he must "be assassinated" according to one female democratic legislator. Such violent hatred has reached levels of incivility previously unacceptable in our country. One would think this is a historically critical issue. Why must the President not be allowed to succeed? Because if he does, it will be historically significant. If he succeeds the way we are represented in Washington may well be changed forever. And those changes threaten the establishment on both sides of the aisle. They realize that and are frightened by the potential.

The existing status quo of the swamp is under siege which seriously threatens the self-serving incestuous world they have created for themselves. The power, prestige, and perks they enjoy which make re-election their primary objective might be reduced or even eliminated in some cases. No longer might they be able to make laws that apply to everyone else but not them: or grant themselves exemptions, retirement benefits, immunities, and numerous other advantages that the rest of us don't enjoy. And how would it change the influence special interest groups have on their votes?

We now have a proposed bill; H.R. 569, in The House Judiciary Committee that violates the constitution on not one, but two provisions; restricting free speech and endorsing the establishment of religion. Last time I checked there were over 140 members of Congress (all from the same party), who took an oath to uphold and defend the Constitution yet co-sponsored this anti-constitutional bill. Calling Congress a swamp fails to describe the depth of dishonesty and corruption that prevails in the establishment. Speaking of honesty, let's not omit the massive voter fraud issue and which party profits from it. For years the Republicans campaigned on repealing / replacing Obama Care, tax reform, and immigration reform but now that they are in power they are in opposition. How dishonest is that?

I do believe, however, that most new electees go to Washington with good intentions, wanting to do the right things but almost immediately the peer pressure is such that doing things the right way supersedes doing the right things. The right way, of course, is following the rules of the insider club which has circled its wagons to prevent Trump, the outsider, from changing their private world, to include the anti-Trump establishment clubs outside of Washington. So dependent upon the Mexican vote, as an example, are the Democrats, that 15 State Attorneys General have filed suit to stop Trump's efforts to end DACA even though these Chief Legal Officers know it was unconstitutional, from the beginning.

The forces arrayed against Trump's success are so numerous and formidable that to succeed might require divine intervention. In addition to the inside establishment club, there is that one entity that determines how most people think and what they believe, the media. The information technology world, including social media, is so influenced by the new three-headed God of the secular humanist movement: political correctness, multi-cultural diversity, and moral relativism that anything approaching opposition to it are instantly vilified. Opponents become racists, homophobes Islamophobes or bigots. The mainstream media, with few exceptions, acts as the personal propaganda arm of the anti-Trump forces. Without the honest, fair, and objective coverage by increasingly successful television, radio, and print organizations many would never know the truth. The recent polls which usually reflect the biases of the mainstream media, have shown Trump's approval ratings, though still low, are higher than those of Congress as a whole. Perhaps we now have three parties: The Republicans, The Democrats, and Trump's American People's Party.

Why Trump Must Fail

The progressive left and Democrats return to power is dependent on Trump failing. One of the main strategies to achieve that failure is to divide the country against itself and what better tactic than promoting and perpetuating racism. Racial unrest and police animosity were facilitated to such an extent under Obama that much of the progress made since Martin Luther King has been reversed. Black living, working, welfare and education levels have all fallen to disgraceful levels. But the Democrats responsible for the failures for many years continue to facilitate racism only now blame it on Trump. They believe if they can keep the nation divided they win. This tactic has worked very well throughout history. Muslim subversion of our country further divides us along religious lines, and it grew in every category under Obama's protection. But, the complicit media will never mention that it was the Muslims who provided most of the slaves to America in the beginning.

Another tactic will be to challenge anything Trump does in a liberal court as was the case with Trump's travel ban. Obama appointed enough federal judges to guarantee an ample supply but the Democrats are still doing everything possible to delay Trump in filling vacancies on the federal bench. Though Trump might vanquish some foes; liberal federal judges can tie up everything he tries in litigation that could go on for months or even years.

If they can keep Trump from achieving legislative success on the big three: repealing/replacing Obama care, tax revision, and immigration reform they win again. In this regard, both sides must be held accountable. Looking at their behavior, could Senator McConnell and Speaker Ryan be covert leaders of the opposition? In eight months with party control of everything; Trump's party has refused to support him, so he turns to the Democrats to get something accomplished. What does that tell us?

Let's not forget the "One Worlders" so favored by the Obama, the Clintons, George Soros, et al. who understand that to create a new order you must first destroy the existing one. The continuing divisive lack of unity that is undermining our nation certainly aids their cause. They too lose if Trump's "Make America Great Again" succeeds and they just can't let that happen. Financial gain and power for the select few have never had a more experienced foe than President Trump who knows their world quite well.

Never in our history have we had a former President work so hard to undermine his successor. The anti-American interests of his political agenda continue to outweigh the values of the country according to the last election. During his terms in office, 20.1 billion dollars in foreign aid, in one year, went to Muslim nations that consistently voted against us in the United Nations. Such assistance amounted to two-thirds of the total foreign aid budget that year. We can give billions every year to countries that hate us but can't fund affordable health care for Americans, including those with pre-existing conditions, or provide effective medical care for our veterans, or fix our crumbling infrastructure? This same Obama as one of his last acts on his final day in office gave North Korea another million in addition to raising their foreign aid earlier to 109 million. We are now finally realizing just what North Korea used that money for, and it wasn't to feed their starving and impoverished people. Obama, alone could not have done many of these things without the passive complicity of the Democrat and Republican residents of the swamp.

As reported in "Overthrow" by Matthew Vadum, published by The Freedom Center, while still in office in 2013 the Obama's created Organizing for Action, a tax-exempt cartel to influence political change. It got underway with a 20 million e-mail list developed for his re-election campaign. As of 2014, Organizing for Action had 240 employees and 35,525 volunteers. At the end of 2014, they had taken in 40.4 million dollars which are being used for agenda advocacy and training thousands of young Americans in how to foster radical political change. It now has 250 field offices. Not to put all his efforts into one program; Obama also created in 2014, The Barak Obama Foundation with generous support from left wing millionaires which is another 501c organization, also dedicated to perpetuating the Obama agenda, to fundamentally transform America.

Moderate Islam?

“These descriptions are very ugly, it is an insult and an offense to our religion. There is no moderate or immoderate Islam. Islam is Islam and that’s it.”

Recep Tayyip Erdogan
President of Turkey

Editors Note: Turkey is working hard to gain a foothold with Native American tribes. The Salish Kootenai tribe has business dealings with Turkey and Saudi Arabia.

Tidbits from Around the Last Best Place

Billings Elects New Council Member from the Democratic Socialists of America Party: Billings, Montana’s largest city, elected Denise Joy, a member of the Democratic Socialists of America to City Council. Ms. Joy becomes the very first member of the Democratic Socialist of America to hold office in Montana. Presidential Candidate, Bernie Sanders, made socialism a household word in his Presidential run. The organization is growing in Montana, with Chapters in Missoula, Helena, Bozeman and the newest in Kalispell. Among other things they support a Universal Wage for all members of the human race.

Meatpackers From Canada and China Looking at Montana

For New Plants: There is a move afoot in Cascade County for a massive agri-business park to be known as Madison Food Park. It would be built on 3,100 acres of farm land about 8 miles southeast of Great Falls. The early projections say it could employ up to 3,000 people in five years. There have already been community meetings in the area and we have contacts in the area who are working on understanding the entire project. There has been mention of a Canadian company and interest from China to build large meat packing operations in the Park. We know from watching other areas of the country, that oftentimes when there are meat packers the ‘refugees’ follow. We’ll update as we know more.

Antifa Alive and Well in Missoula: In the run up to our recent Trevor Loudon even in Missoula we discovered that the notorious Antifa, is alive and well in where else, Missoula. The hotel where we hosted the event received threatening calls, from a caller identified only as ‘a local Jew’. The corporate office for Fairbridge Inn & Suites also received an email demanding they cancel our event. Fortunately, the corporate office and the local owners were very supportive. They sent people to the Missoula Police to demand protection. In the end, 14 protestors showed up as did the MPD, who advised them they needed to stand across the street. They were peaceful. You can see some of them now commenting on our Facebook page. You’ll understand exactly what they think by reading the discussions there.

Free Speech & Missoula: In addition to our challenges with Antifa leading up to the Trevor Loudon event in Missoula, we experienced other slights. We began by setting up the meeting to be held at the Montana National Guard building on 93, just north of I-90. We bought the special insurance they required, made application and were told no worries. That is until it went to Helena and the General. It was stopped with no explanation. We’re in the process of getting to the bottom of this one. We’ll let you know how it turns out. Then we went to the Broadway Inn & Conference Center. Even after telling them we might get protested, they enthusiastically agreed to host our event. That is until the next morning when we were notified the owners wouldn’t permit it because it was a ‘public safety issue’. Onward and upward we got an approval from the Best Western Plus on I-90 and Reserve. That is, until the next morning when they notified us that the General Manager would not host ‘political’ events. Of course the Assistant GM and the Sales Manager had told us in person the only people they ever turned down were traveling seminars who rip off old people. Montana ... we have a problem. Our free speech is fast disappearing.

Actions You Can Take

CARE: Care enough to learn what's happening to our State & Country. Care enough to do something to save the America we grew up in for our children and grandchildren. Care enough to do what you can.

ATTEND: Attend school events and see what is going on. Attend school board meetings and voice your opinion. Attend politicians' visits and make your voice heard. Attend our events and bring others.

BRING: Bring friends and family members to our events and significant other events you attend. We each live in a circle of influence. We have people who look up to us and we them. Bring them to events and to your level of understanding.

HOLD: Hold small events in your home. We have DVD's available. Invite one, two or many. Take part in educating others so that they understand the dire straits our country is in. The time is now.

WRITE: Write. Letters or emails to your Congressman, Senators, the President, your school board, the Governor, your State Senators and Representatives. Write letters to the Editor. Make your voice heard.

DONATE: Donate your time, your talents and what money you can spare. Our events and speakers cost money. Conference room spaces cost range from $250 to $1800. Speakers cost range from, a few who come and speak for just their expenses, to some who charge $2000 or more, and everywhere in between. You can give at our events or you can mail donations to our address in this newsletter.

Why Trump Must Fail

Our young future leaders are carefully indoctrinated in left-wing ideology in almost every college and university in America, by committed liberal anti-Trump professors who advocate radical activism. They hope his failure becomes proof of their ideology. As Hitler believed; control the thinking of the youth, and you can control the country. These students not only vote, but they also become the teachers and professors of the next generation. Trump has indicated he's not in favor of public service unions; well the NEA may be the biggest, most powerful union in the world. Let's see how far his new Secretary of Education gets in trying to eliminate Common Core and promote voucher schools for the less privileged minorities. Guess which party, who has always claimed to be their champion, will oppose these efforts?

Among the most dangerous enemies may well be those within the administration itself. The hundreds of tenured and appointed employees who fill the senior supervisory and operating positions in every department in government who have become traitors to this country. They not only, don't support his Presidency, but actively oppose it. They too realize that their lifetime tenured world is in jeopardy. How many in the White House staff are still secretly working to undermine his ability to keep his promises to those who elected him? One said, "you'll never stop all the leaks." Thanks to their efforts and the efforts of all the other opposition previously cited, Steve Bannon was right when he stated, "The Trump Presidency we voted for is over." President Trump may never be allowed to do what he was elected to do.

Even a minimal understanding of history and basic human behavior tells us, all forms of misbehavior, whether evil or sin, are primarily enabled by a lack of opposition. As we look at the long-term continuing escalation of government incompetence; recently well illustrated by our aiding and abetting Iran in its pursuit of nuclear missile capability, the Republicans and Democrats have no-one to blame but themselves. For that matter, America will have no-one to blame but itself if our children and grandchildren grow up in a socialist dictatorship which is what will follow the collapse of our government if Trump does not succeed in saving America from itself.

Tom did a tour in The Marine Corps following high school then joined The Los Angeles Police Department. He served for 25 years in a variety of assignments retiring in 1981 as an Area Commander. He served the next 30 years as a police training and management consultant including 35 years as an adjunct faculty member at The University of Southern California teaching Leadership and Organization Development in the School of Public Administration. Tom graduated from Pepperdine University with a Master's Degree in Organization Development. During the past 9 years he has become a recognized authority, speaker, and teacher on Islam and Islamic Jihad.

Books Worth Reading

Excerpt ... 'A Red Flag: During the investigation of Hillary's emails, former FBI Director, James Comey set up a hotline with Mireille Ballestrazzi, the Head of INTERPOL, the International Criminal Police Organization. Thanks to Ballestrazzi and INTERPOL's worldwide resources, Comey collected intelligence on the interconnections between Middle Eastern Jihadi's, European radicals, and the American anarchists who were part of the anti-Trump 'resistance' movement'.

Excerpt ...'The closest thing to match for a No Go Zone in the United States would be the Fuqra lands. They've been around since the early 1980's, their own publications have boasted about enforcing Sharia law in the lands. They've got pictures in their own publications saying how they'll whip someone but it's a voluntary whipping. Yes, they have a Sharia Court that will come in and enforce, if they find you with alcohol. Note: Under the Clinton Administration, Fuqra was considered a terrorist group but nothing was done'.

Excerpt ... 'Progressives in America are using their dominance, actually their virtual monopoly, in the fields of academia, Hollywood and the media to enforce their own Gleichschaltung,. They do this not merely through the type of blatant propagandizing and outright lying that would do Joseph Goebbels proud, but also through the relentless and forced exclusion of dissident voices from their cultural institutions, so that theirs is the only point of view that is communicated to the vast majority of students and citizens'.

DID YOU KNOW?

That in Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act (CDA) under the First Amendment, it provides immunity from lawsuits to Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube, thereby permitting these social media giants to engage in government-sanctioned censorship and discriminatory business practices free from legal challenge.

The big three, Facebook, YouTube and Twitter can do what their doing with impunity. But not so fast, Pamela Geller (Atlas Shrugs) along with the help of the legal team from American Freedom Defense Initiative (AFDI) are suing in Federal Court under the First Amendment seeking to stop this unlawful practice. Ms. Geller has been at times kicked off all three social media sites. Among others.
