Last Chance Patriots in Action

2018 will be a challenging year for all of us. We will be challenged to continue Making America Great Again by assuring that the mid-term election seats good, strong candidates who will respect and protect our Constitution and who recognize that they work for us! For Montana, that means that we need to unseat Jon Tester! Please make time to work toward that goal by supporting a Republican candidate in the Primary who can do just that. Whoever it may be, he will have an uphill climb to overcome the out-of-state money that supports Tester. Please help in any way that you can!

LCP has exciting plans for this year which include co-sponsoring with the Flathead Republican Central Committee a presentation by Dinesh D'Souza in March, bringing Shahram Hadian to Montana in April, and hosting Stephen Coughlin in October. In addition we hope to launch a website in the next couple of months and we will sponsor a few informative meetings in Flathead and Lake Counties, focusing on issues critical to Montanans. We are seeking invitations to make educational presentations to interested groups all around Montana in 2018. Our goal is to assure that Montanans are well-equipped to be strong Patriots fighting a good fight to bring our state and country back from the brink of disaster upon which we have been teetering. Join us!

Missoula Refugee Update thru January 20, 2018

As of January 20, 2018 there have been 133 refugees resettled in Missoula since August 2016. Their countries of origin are:

Democratic Republic of Congo	37
Eritrea	64
Ethiopia	7
Iraq	12
Syria	13

There were no refugees resettled between December 1, 2017 and January 20, 2018. The Trump Administration's efforts to reduce the number of refugees have been very effective. The VOLAG's are all crying about the decrease in refugee arrivals because it is hitting their bottom lines! That means that less of your tax dollars are being squandered in support of "voluntary agencies" like the International Rescue Committee in Missoula.

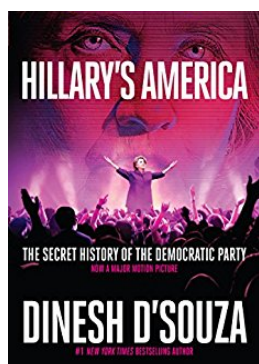

But we must stay vigilant! Immense pressure is being exerted on the Administration to increase the number of refugees coming to the US. Let the White House know that you approve of the effort to slow down the flood of refugees. And keep a close eye on Helena, where we can expect the next IRC office to open at the invitation of the mayor.

Dinesh D'Souza Coming to Montana - March 10

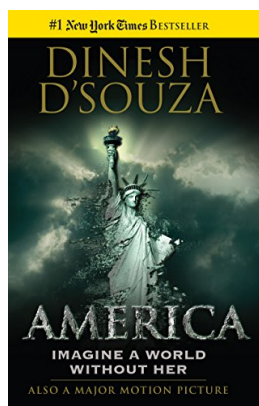

The Last Chance Patriots and the Flathead Republican Central Committee are partnering in a fundraiser to bring Author, Filmmaker and American Patriot Dinesh D'Souza to the Flathead. He will be speaking at 6 PM on Saturday night, March 10 at The Bigfork Center for the Performing Arts.

Dinesh D'Souza has had a 25-year career as a writer, scholar, and public intellectual. A former policy analyst in the Reagan White House, D'Souza also served as John M. Olin Fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, and the Robert and Karen Rishwain Fellow at the Hoover Institution at Stanford University. He served as the president of The King's College in New York City from 2010 to 2012.

Called one of the "top young public-policy makers in the country" by Investor's Business Daily, D'Souza quickly became known as a major influencer on public policy through his writings. His first book, Illiberal Education (1991), publicized the phenomenon of political correctness in America's colleges and universities and became a New York Times bestseller for 15 weeks. It has been listed as one of the most influential books of the 1990s.

Born in Mumbai, India, D'Souza came to the U.S. as an exchange student and graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Dartmouth College in 1983. D'Souza has been named one of America's most influential conservative thinkers by the New York Times Magazine. The World Affairs Council lists him as one of the nation's 500 leading authorities on international issues, and Newsweek cited him as one of the country's most prominent Asian-Americans.

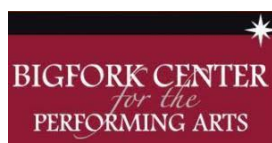

D'Souza's articles have appeared in virtually every major magazine and newspaper, including the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, The Atlantic Monthly, Vanity Fair, New Republic, and National Review. He has appeared on numerous television programs, including the Today Show, Nightline, The News Hour on PBS, The O'Reilly Factor, Moneyline, Hannity, Bill Maher, NPR's All Things Considered, CNBC's Kudlow Report, Lou Dobbs Tonight, and Real Time with Bill Maher. In 2010, D'Souza wrote The Roots of Obama's Rage (Regnery), which was described as the most influential political book of the year and proved to be yet another best seller.

Just as in his early years D'Souza was one of the nation's most articulate spokesmen for a reasoned and thoughtful conservatism, in recent years he has been an equally brilliant and forceful defender of Christianity. What's So Great About Christianity not only intelligently explained the core doctrines of the Christian faith, it also explained how the freedom and prosperity associated with Western Civilization rest upon the foundation of biblical Christianity. Life After Death: The Evidence shows why the atheist critique of immortality is irrational and draws the striking conclusion that it is reasonable to believe in life after death.

In the past few years Mr. D'Souza has produced several hard hitting documentaries on the Left and it's influence in America. Among them are 2016 - Obama's America and America - Imagine a World Without Her. One event you won't want to miss.

TICKET INFORMATION: The event will be held at the Bigfork Center for the Performing Arts. It will begin at 6 PM on Saturday, March 10. Seating is limited. Tickets are $100.00 each. For tickets email Caroline at lcp59911@gmail.com and she will handle all arrangements.

Is Jon Tester Right for Montana?

Is Senator Tester right for the Last Best Place?

Let's take a quick look back to November 2006. Jon Tester narrowly defeats former Montana Senator Conrad Burns by late arriving votes from tribal reservations, secured at polling precincts on federal Indian trust land, where the Secretary of State has no oversight, authority or enforcement. This senator's questionable election changed the power in the Senate from Republican to Democrat. That's interesting wouldn't you say. At the same time Senator Tester was taking campaign contributions from Jack Abramoff, now a convicted felon. Of course Big Jon quickly gave the money back when the scandal became public.

The Freedom Index is a tracking of how a Congressman votes on Constitutional issues. Senator Testers cumulative score for his entire tenure in our nations Senate is 22%. That means he votes for the Constitution just 22% of the time. Let that sink in while we look at some of the bills he doesn't support.

On the Joint Resolution H.J.Res. 43: Federal Family Planning, an attempt to limit funds to organizations like Planned Parenthood to only family planning expenditures, Senator Tester did not support limiting Planned Parenthood in any way. On the Joint Resolution H.J.Res. 69: Predator Control Senator Tester, Mr. Montana Outdoorsman, voted against affirming Alaska's right under our Constitution to manage its own wildlife and not the federal government. Big Jon is a Big Government guy.

And Mr. Hometown, don't take none of that big money, was in LA, Century City to be exact, at the Craft Restaurant in November 2011 at a fundraiser on his behalf hosted by none other than Rob Reiner, aka Meathead, his wife Michele, Peter Lowy, CEO of the Westfield Group and Steve Bing, a businessman turned film producer who is known for his generous support of Progressive causes. So our Senator Tester isn't above schmoozing with the Reiners, who are far left progressives and a wealthy CEO and Bing, a supporter of Hillary Clinton, Al Gore, Nancy Pelosi and every progressive cause in California where he lives. Does our main man, everyday farmer Jon Tester, speak with forked tongue? You decide.

One curious endorsement Senator Tester enjoys is that of the Council for a Livable World. It was founded in 1962 by long-time socialist activist and alleged Soviet agent, Leo Szilar. It is a non-profit advocacy organization that seeks to reduce the danger of nuclear weapons and increase national security through supporting progressive, congressional candidates who support their policies. They boast on their website that "Almost 50 years ago, Council for a Livable World pioneered a system for helping progressive congressional candidates get elected to office. Over the last 44 years, we have helped elect 113 U.S. arms control candidates to the Senate and 151 candidates to the House of Representatives. Council supporters, now over 40,000 strong, provide more funds to opponents of the arms race than any other arms control organization in America: over $1.5 million in 2006."

We could go on and on with this guy but space doesn't permit. But let's call attention to the recent government shutdown led by Senator Schumer and his fellow Democrats. Our very own Montana Senator Tester voted to put illegal immigrants and his own personal bias before our military and citizens like each of us. That was on the first go around that shut the government down. On the second go around to start it back up and do the right thing, our very own Big Jon was 1 of 18 Democratic Senators who voted against starting the government back up and the only Red State Democrat to vote against the Bill. He sure had Montanan's interest at heart then, didn't he? Remember this come November and tell your neighbors.

Did You Know?

That according to the Federation for American Immigration Reform (FAIR) reports that illegal immigration costs the state of Montana over $37 million a year and represents 720 jobs in the Last Best Place. And Mr. Tester voted to shut the government down rather than deal negatively with illegal immigration. Sad.

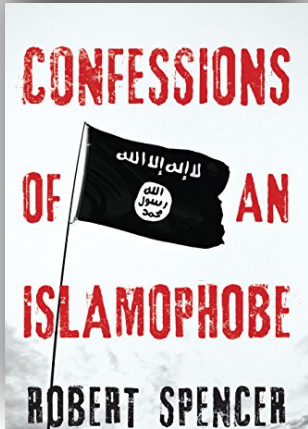

Did You Know?

That after the 2006 Montana Democratic Primary for the Senate held on June 6 that year, the National Committee of the Communist Party USA chose to let their members know in a June 24, 2006 communique which read, "There were also some outright victories for peace candidates. In Montana, State Senator Jon Tester who has a very strong labor, environment and peace record won a landslide victory in the US Senate primary over a Democratic Leadership Council candidate who was favored to win. Tester will challenge incumbent Sen. Conrad Burns who is considered the second most vulnerable in the Senate."

Isn't that fascinating?

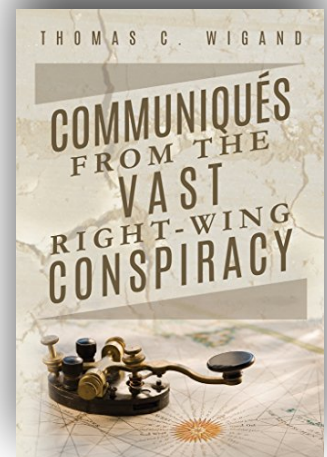

Books Worth Reading

We Cannot Defeat an Enemy We Don't Know or Understand

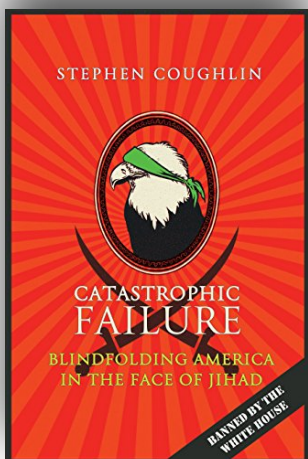

Excerpt ... (1) “Those who value free societies and prize free discourse should take note of what is happening. The western intelligentsia has decided that ‘Islamophobia’, not jihad terrorism, is the real problem, and the Western world is reaping the consequences. (2) People who try to hang on to their individuality may always come to a bad end, but following the herd off the cliff is even worse. I’m not capitulating because I cannot capitulate. Stephane Charbonnier, or ‘Charb’, the Editor of Charlie Hedbo whom Islamic jihadi’s murdered in January 2015, said it in 2012. “What I’m about to say is maybe a little pompous, but I’d rather die standing up than live on my knees.”

Excerpt ... (1) “While we cannot prove it, the evidence points to the Collectivist-Progressives seeing in Barack Obama the final consummation of their war against our founding and Constitution, the third strike, the final blow after the initial blows under Progressives Woodrow Wilson and FDR.” (2) “We - you and I and all of us - are called. Not to sit by idly and allow Collectivist-Progressives - those agents of ‘Satanically inspired utopianism’ - to ride in upon the backs of our passivity and succeed in their ‘fundamental transformation of the United States of America.

Excerpt ... There is overwhelming evidence that sharia does in fact serve as the driver of the enemy’s threat doctrine. This remains true regardless of whether the enemy’s understanding of Islam is accurate. Such evidence makes it possible to successfully lay down the indicators of future activities, many of which have, in fact, already come to pass precisely as forecasted. And yet an intelligence officer, an FBI or DHS special agent, or a national security decision-maker can be fired for undertaking or even reciting such analysis. This is the very type of analysis that our oaths demand of us and that our positions require. A national security professional’s duty is not to know true Islam; it is to identify and establish a functional threat doctrine, regardless of whether that doctrine accurately tracks with “true” Islam or not.

Does Trump Lack Decorum, Dignity, and Statesmanship?

Editors Note: The following article was written by Evan Sayet, a conservative writer. It was published in Townhall magazine and reprinted here in its entirety:

Subject: Trump's lack of decorum, dignity, and statesmanship

My Leftist friends (as well as many ardent #NeverTrumpers) constantly ask me if I'm not bothered by Donald Trump's lack of decorum. They ask if I don't think his tweets are "beneath the dignity of the office." Here's my answer: We Right-thinking people have tried dignity. There could not have been a man of more quiet dignity than George W. Bush as he suffered the outrageous lies and politically motivated hatreds that undermined his presidency.

We tried statesmanship. Could there be another human being on this earth who so desperately prized "collegiality" as John McCain? We tried propriety – has there been a nicer human being ever than Mitt Romney? And the results were always the same. This is because, while we were playing by the rules of dignity, collegiality and propriety, the Left has been, for the past 60 years, engaged in a knife fight where the only rules are those of Saul Alinsky and the Chicago mob.

I don't find anything "dignified," "collegial" or "proper" about Barack Obama's lying about what went down on the streets of Ferguson in order to ramp up racial hatreds because racial hatreds serve the Democratic Party. I don't see anything "dignified" in lying about the deaths of four Americans in Benghazi and imprisoning an innocent filmmaker to cover your tracks. I don't see anything "statesman-like" in weaponizing the IRS to be used to destroy your political opponents and any dissent. Yes, Obama was "articulate" and "polished" but in no way was he in the least bit "dignified," "collegial" or "proper."

The Left has been engaged in a war against America since the rise of the Children of the '60s. To them, it has been an all-out war where nothing is held sacred and nothing is seen as beyond the pale. It has been a war they've fought with violence, the threat of violence, demagoguery and lies from day one – the violent take-over of the universities – till today. The problem is that, through these years, the Left has been the only side fighting this war. While the Left has been taking a knife to anyone who stands in their way, the Right has continued to act with dignity, collegiality and propriety. With Donald Trump, this all has come to an end. Donald Trump is America's first wartime president in the Culture War.

During wartime, things like "dignity" and "collegiality" simply aren't the most essential qualities one looks for in their warriors. Ulysses Grant was a drunk whose behavior in peacetime might well have seen him drummed out of the Army for conduct unbecoming. Had Abraham Lincoln applied the peacetime rules of propriety and booted Grant, the Democrats might well still be holding their slaves today. Lincoln rightly recognized that, "I cannot spare this man. He fights."

General George Patton was a vulgar-talking, son-of-a-bitch. In peacetime, this might have seen him stripped of rank. But, had Franklin Roosevelt applied the normal rules of decorum then, Hitler and the Socialists would barely be five decades into their thousand-year Reich. Trump is fighting. And what's particularly delicious is that, like Patton standing over the battlefield as his tanks obliterated Rommel's, he's shouting, "You magnificent bastards, I read your book!"
CHECK THIS NEXT PARAGRAPH OUT!

That is just the icing on the cake, but it's wonderful to see that not only is Trump fighting, he's defeating the Left using their own tactics. That book is Saul Alinsky's Rules for Radicals – a book so essential to the Liberals' war against America that it is and was the playbook for the entire Obama administration and the subject of Hillary Clinton's senior thesis. It is a book of such pure evil, that, just as the rest of us would dedicate our book to those we most love or those to whom we are most indebted, Alinsky dedicated his book to Lucifer.

Trump's tweets may seem rash and unconsidered but, in reality, he is doing exactly what Alinsky suggested his followers do. First, instead of going after "the fake media" — and they are so fake that they have literally gotten every single significant story of the past 60 years not just wrong, but diametrically opposed to the truth, from the Tet Offensive to Benghazi, to what really happened on the streets of Ferguson, Missouri — Trump isolated CNN. He made it personal.

Then, just as Alinsky suggests, he employs ridicule which Alinsky described as “the most powerful weapon of all.”... Most importantly, Trump’s tweets have put CNN in an untenable and unwinnable position. ... They need to respond. This leaves them with only two choices. They can either “go high” (as Hillary would disingenuously declare of herself and the fake news would disingenuously report as the truth) and begin to honestly and accurately report the news or they can double-down on their usual tactics and hope to defeat Trump with twice their usual hysteria and demagoguery. The problem for CNN (et al.) with the former is that, if they were to start honestly reporting the news, that would be the end of the Democratic Party they serve.

It is nothing but the incessant use of fake news (read: propaganda) that keeps the Left alive. Imagine, for example, if CNN had honestly and accurately reported then-candidate Barack Obama’s close ties to foreign terrorists (Rashid Khalidi), domestic terrorists (William Ayers), the mafia (Tony Rezko) or the true evils of his spiritual mentor, Jeremiah Wright’s church. Imagine if they had honestly and accurately conveyed the evils of the Obama administration’s weaponing of the IRS to be used against their political opponents or his running of guns to the Mexican cartels or the truth about the murder of Ambassador Christopher Stevens and the Obama administration’s cover-up.

So, To my friends on the Left — and the #NeverTrumpers as well — do I wish we lived in a time when our president could be “collegial” and “dignified” and “proper”? Of course I do. These aren’t those times. This is war. And it’s a war that the Left has been fighting without opposition for the past 50 years. So, say anything you want about this president - I get it - he can be vulgar, he can be crude, he can be undignified at times. I don’t care. I can’t spare this man. He fights for America!

No trees were harmed in the creation of this message, but a large number of electrons were terribly inconvenienced.

Upcoming Last Chance Patriots Events for 2018

The INTERFAITH MOVEMENT presented by Pastor Shahram Hadian: COMING TO POLSON April 17, CUTBANK April 18, GREAT FALLS April 19, and HELENA April 20.

Shahram Hadian is the founder of the TIL (Truth in Love) Project Ministry, and travels around America and Canada addressing critical issues facing us as believers and as Americans, including the threat of Islam and oppressive Shari'ah law, the need for courageous leadership in the pulpit and in our churches, and standing with the nation of Israel. A Christian pastor and former Muslim, Shahram was born in Iran and came to America to escape an oppressive Islamic regime. Shahram's unique background includes experience as a pastor, police officer, teacher, coach, and servant leader in his community. He was a candidate for the governor of WA State in 2012. In the past several years, he has spoken to various groups around North America, including legislators, law enforcement, civic groups, churches, and concerned citizens.

CATASTROPHIC FAILURE - Blindfolding America in the Face of Jihad by Terrorism Expert Stephen Coughlin. COMING TO MONTANA in October 2018.

After the events of September 11, 2001, Stephen Coughlin was mobilized from his private sector career to the Intelligence Directorate at the Joint Chiefs of Staff to work in Targeting. Thus began his education in terrorism. In the years that followed, Coughlin earned recognition as the Pentagon’s leading expert on the Islamic-based doctrines motivating jihadi groups that confront America. He came into demand as a trainer and lecturer at leading commands and senior service staff institutions, including the National Defense University, the Army and Navy War Colleges, the Marine Corps-Quantico, the State Department, and the FBI. So effective were his presentations that some in the special operations community dubbed them “Red Pill” briefings, a reference to an iconic scene in The Matrix. It’s an apt metaphor: Once the facts and doctrines are properly explained and understood, there is no going back. He was fired by Obama.

Tidbits from Around the Last Best Place

Cliven Bundy Welcomed in Paradise: A standing room only crowd came out to hear Cliven Bundy, his son Ryan and a host of others speak at an event hosted by the Coalition of Western Property Owners. Bundy's federal case was just tossed out of court by Judge Navarro, with prejudice. That means the government can't come up with a new angle and try him again. The old gym in Paradise was overflowing out the doors. Between 300 and 400 people packed in a gave the speakers many, many standing ovations. We were taught a great deal about the Constitution and learned how far we've strayed. It was an important event and opened a lot of eyes on the federal governments over reach.

UM School of Journalism Shocks Donor and Refuses Guest

Lecturer Who is Too Conservative: Maria Cole was married to Jeff Cole, a Wall Street Journal reporter. Upon his passing she established a Jeff Cole Legacy Fund. She has given more than $1.2 million dollars to the U of M School of Journalism and annually sponsors a speaker and the school picks a scholarship winner. The 10th year of her scholarship is 2018 and the guest lecturer is not acceptable to Dean Larry Abramson. He withdrew the University's sponsorship as to him, apparently freedom of speech doesn't apply in the People Republic of Missoula.

Maria Cole said she was shocked by the Dean's refusal but was going ahead with the event anyway. The event will be held on February 13 from 6 to 8 PM at the Dennison Theater on Campus. The speaker will be as planned, Mike Adams, a Professor at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington. Adams is known to mock leftists in his writing and sparked a petition for his termination at UNC. He later won a First Amendment case in the Fourth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in 2011. Should be an interesting evening. The event is free but you must get tickets which are available online at Eventbrite.

Our Neighbors to the North: A quick note on the deterioration of our great neighbor to the North. Parliament passed a resolution making 'Islamophobia' a crime. Its called M-103 or Motion 103. One lady has already been fired for writing for a truthful expose Islam site. Keep in mind, people are being prosecuted in the European Union today for making comments critical of Islam..

Great Falls Meatpacking Update: We'll have a full update next month but check out Great Falls Area Concerned Citizens on Facebook. The people are rising up to be heard. Click here <https://www.facebook.com/GreatFallsAreaConcernedCitizens/>

A Video All Montanans Should See: One of the speakers at the Cliven Bundy event in Paradise was Shawna Cox. Shawna was in the car with Lavoy Finnicum, Ryan Bundy and one other lady the day Lavoy was shot. Shawna filmed the entire encounter on her cell phone. It's about 15 minutes, maybe longer and is a witness to the murder of Lavoy Finnicum. It is chilling to say the least. Follow this link to view it ... https://youtu.be/eEswP_HSFV4

On the Leftist Side of Things ... Under the headline No Hoax Here: Missoula County Hires Energy Conservation/Sustainability Coordinator the Missoula Current online newspaper reported on the madness that is Missoula city has now apparently caught on in Missoula County. The article begins "Reducing greenhouse gas emissions across a landscape as large as the state of Rhode Island has its challenges, but Missoula County commissioners have shrugged off climate change deniers and are working to address one of the planet's most pressing issues." The Rhode Island logic speaks to the insanity at work here. Missoula County is actually twice the square miles as Rhode Island (they may want to hire two people now?) with Rhode Island at 1,214 square miles and the County at 2,618. Impressive until you look at the population difference. Rhode Island has more people than the State of Montana. The per square mile population is Missoula County 48 and Rhode Island 1,006. What is wrong with these people? But hey, they're going to have a climate plan like their partner, Missoula City. They apparently have money to burn.
